this anthology of black writers traces the evolution of african american perspectives throughout american history from the early years of slavery to the end of the twentieth century the essays manifestos interviews and documents assembled here contextualized with critical commentaries from marable and mullings introduce the reader to the character and important controversies of each period of black history the selections represent a broad spectrum of ideology conservative radical nationalistic and integrationist approaches can be found in almost every period yet there have been striking shifts in the evolution of social thought and activism the editors judiciously illustrate how both continuity and change affected the african american community in terms of its internal divisions class structure migration social problems leadership and protest movements they also show how gender spirituality literature music and connections to africa and the caribbean played a prominent role in black life and history following up on the popularity of the groundbreaking anthology embodied spirits stories of spiritual directors of color this book continues the work of filling a void in the world of contemplative spirituality in stories of the contemplative spiritual journeys of people of color like the first book ain t gonna let nobody turn me around incorporates stories from members of their encounters with othering and disparaging treatment across issues and their understandings of contemplative practice and the call to action that follows this volume seeks to give voice to these issues from those whom have lived with them and to seek peace and healing for the unresolved trauma that continues to separate us in a world of resurgent racism and bias against those whose skin color nationality religion gender or sexuality are seen as other these are voices that need to be heard in his desire to share his passion for christ johnnie has compiled a number of prose that he delights in sharing with readers everywhere this book entitled god is smart is the first in his compilation it offers insight into the very easy and non mysterious relationship were able to have with jesus christ and a peek inside the thoughts of a man whose very heart is toward god his desire is that his songs of prayers catapult you into the very presence of god in a way that is uncluttered with the semantics of religion and purely out of need for a genuine relationship with god enjoy your reading and look for more books sharing the dynamic point of view from mr johnny nathaniel johnson in this personal history of the negro leagues stanley glenn gives an intimate and in depth look at the daily trials and tribulations of a negro league baseball player with wisdom wit and perspective glenn recalls the indignities he and his teammates suffered during the days of jim crow a time when they were denied gas for their vehicles or even a decent place to stay as they went barnstorming around the country playing against and alongside some of the greatest baseball players of all time glenn s story illuminates the strength and determination of black ball players in spite of the forces against them they persevered for love of the game and despite the adversities these men faced they enjoyed the journey and came away with treasured memories and lifelong friendships through his blend of humorous anecdotes inspiring words of wisdom and colorful imagery mr glenn wonderfully conveys the bittersweet paradox that was the negro league baseball experience may you feel the love presence and tranquility of god and may your love relationship with him continue to grow throughout your life and beyond a key question what has god designed and placed us on this earthly journey to learn and or do are your my heart and action true to that calling if so are we being faithful to becoming what god created each of us individually to be all is well remember god s words to his disciples this kind goes out but through prayer and fasting always say all is well long though the way may seem there is no too much by half god is not only with you on the journey he planned it and is planning it there are and will be unspeakable joys on that journey look for them courage courage courage why are we so blind as to think earthly life is all there is why do we ignore the immense treasure of love what does it take to understand and make it so
